

Brian Fork, CEO OF HURRICANES HOLDINGS, LLC

Fork will help supervise all business units of Hurricanes Holdings, LLC, including the Hurricanes, Lenovo Center, the mixed-use real estate development, planned sportsbook and other business interests of the company.

Fork joined the organization in July of 2024. He previously spent the better part of six years with the North Carolina General Assembly, serving as Chief of Staff to NC Senate President Pro Tempore Phil Berger from December 2020 to July 2024, following two years as Senate General Counsel. Prior to joining the legislature, Fork was a Raleigh-based partner at two law firms, K&L Gates, LLP and Brooks, Pierce, McLendon, Humphrey and Leonard, LLP. His 13 years of private law practice focused on commercial restructuring and bankruptcy, real estate and business disputes, and commercial litigation. He is a graduate of Davidson College, where he was a member of the football team, and the UNC School of Law. Before attending law school, he worked as an assistant football coach at Davidson, coaching running backs and wide receivers. Fork was named to Triangle Business Journal's 40 Under 40 in 2015 and currently serves on the five-member NC Economic Investment Committee.
