

Jeff Zenger has 25 years experience in the building and development industry. Over his expansive career he has done residential and commercial building. Additionally, he has done both residential and commercial development. In so doing he runs 3 small businesses. He resides in Lewisville, NC for the last 26 years where he and his wife of 34 years have raised 4 children. He has served on his towns planning board, founding chair of the Lewisville utilities committee, and served 4 terms on the Lewisville town council. Additionally, over the years he has served on boards and committees for his church, WSHBA and various ministries. Prior to settling in Lewisville, he served 13 years in Baltimore city doing Urban Ministry to teenagers with YoungLife. Representative Zenger is currently in his second term in the NC House representing the 74th district after being elected initially 2020 in a hard-fought race in what was considered a tossup district. He is currently Chairman of the House Regulatory Reform Committee.

